Special Operations

If we could build a corporation today out of pooled resources, give your best guess of how much you would like to spend on it...

A dollar-or-so a day

Three dollars a day, or so...

Five dollars a day

No, I'd rather keep paying thrice as much for marketing with no free concerts, CD-Roms, and no big business experience...

Part II

Inventory

Note: This is not to be perceived as a contract for donations or any other type of commitment. Inventory can include products, your time, and the assets which may/may not help the team. We just want a feel for what kind of assets we can build from our combined efforts...

Do you have a car?

If so, make/model/year:

How far do you typically travel?

How far are you willing to travel?

What do you do for a living, again?

We hope you can help with chores. Let us know what times would be good when you can help...

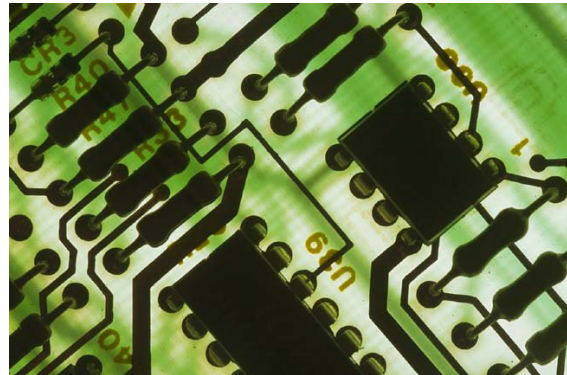

Are there any times that would be BAD? If so, list them...

O.K., let's talk some HARDWARE-ONLY (no software, yet) shop, first...

List quantity and details of what you own in the following categories:

Please list any scientific and/or instrumentation software:

Is there any other software which may help the team? Please, list here...

Any other hardware you think may help the team? Please, list here...

Do you have a record collection, collection of CDs, and/or DVDs?

Describe, please:

O.K., now some more questions on other stuff..

Would you be able to host focus groups where you live?

Can you do heavy lifting at any corporate presentations and/or special events?

Do you like working in groups?

Do you have any employees? If so, how many?

Do you like the sound of the project, so far?

Good.

Now, a few questions for those of you who charge hourly rates...

Do you charge for any other services?

How much?

Are there any other details about your service charges you think would benefit the team? Please, list...

Any comments or suggestions at this point that you would like to share with the group?

Is there anything that you feel has not been brought up so far that you feel would help our progress?

Do you finish what you start?

Completed the form?

Good.
